

NATIONALS FAIL TO HIT CHESBRO

All Best Batters Take Day Off in New York Town.

YANKEE RECRUITS GAIN DISTINCTION

Gardner and Cree Should Be a Help in Bolstering Up the Hilltoppers.

Fighting every inch of the way, and giving splendid support to Walter Johnson, the Nationals were defeated, but not routed at New York yesterday, by 2 to 1.

On the way from the station it was found that the Washington club had lost its bats, and after a few innings it was equally apparent that the players had likewise lost their batting eyes.

Gardner failed to connect, and Unglaub, who for a whole week, up to yesterday had not failed with the timely bingle, again went hitless. Milan also failed to raise his batting average, and his most promising attempt was when he hit into a double play with men on bases.

Youngsters Get Credit.

To two youngsters belong the credit for yesterday's victory. The hitting and fielding of Gardner were quite a help.

While young Mr. Cree got quite a hand from the apathetic crowd when he pulled off each of two circus catches, Chesbro proved something of a puzzle to the visitors, while Johnson, although effective in the main, failed in pinches.

CARLISLE PASSES CENTURY SCORE

Indians Have Already Chalked Up 102 to Their Opponents' 0.

CARLISLE, Pa., Oct. 2.—The Carlisle Indians up to this week have scored in their three games 102 points to their opponents' 0.

In the Villa Nova game the backs were painfully slow and none of the backs in that game is sure of his job. The Red Skins have been putting in a strenuous week's work under the pressure of necessity of hard practice for the approaching hard games with State at Wilkes-Barre and Syracuse at Buffalo.

The regular practice hours at the Indian school have been lengthened, and beginning a week earlier in the afternoon they last until 6 o'clock.

Last year's famous Indian end, William Gardner, is coaching the Dupont Manual Training School eleven at Louisville, Ky.

BROWNS LAND TWO IN KEYSTONE STATE

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 2.—Two late drafts by the St. Louis Americans are Catcher Miller and Pitcher Swift, of the Wilkes-Barre club, New York State League.

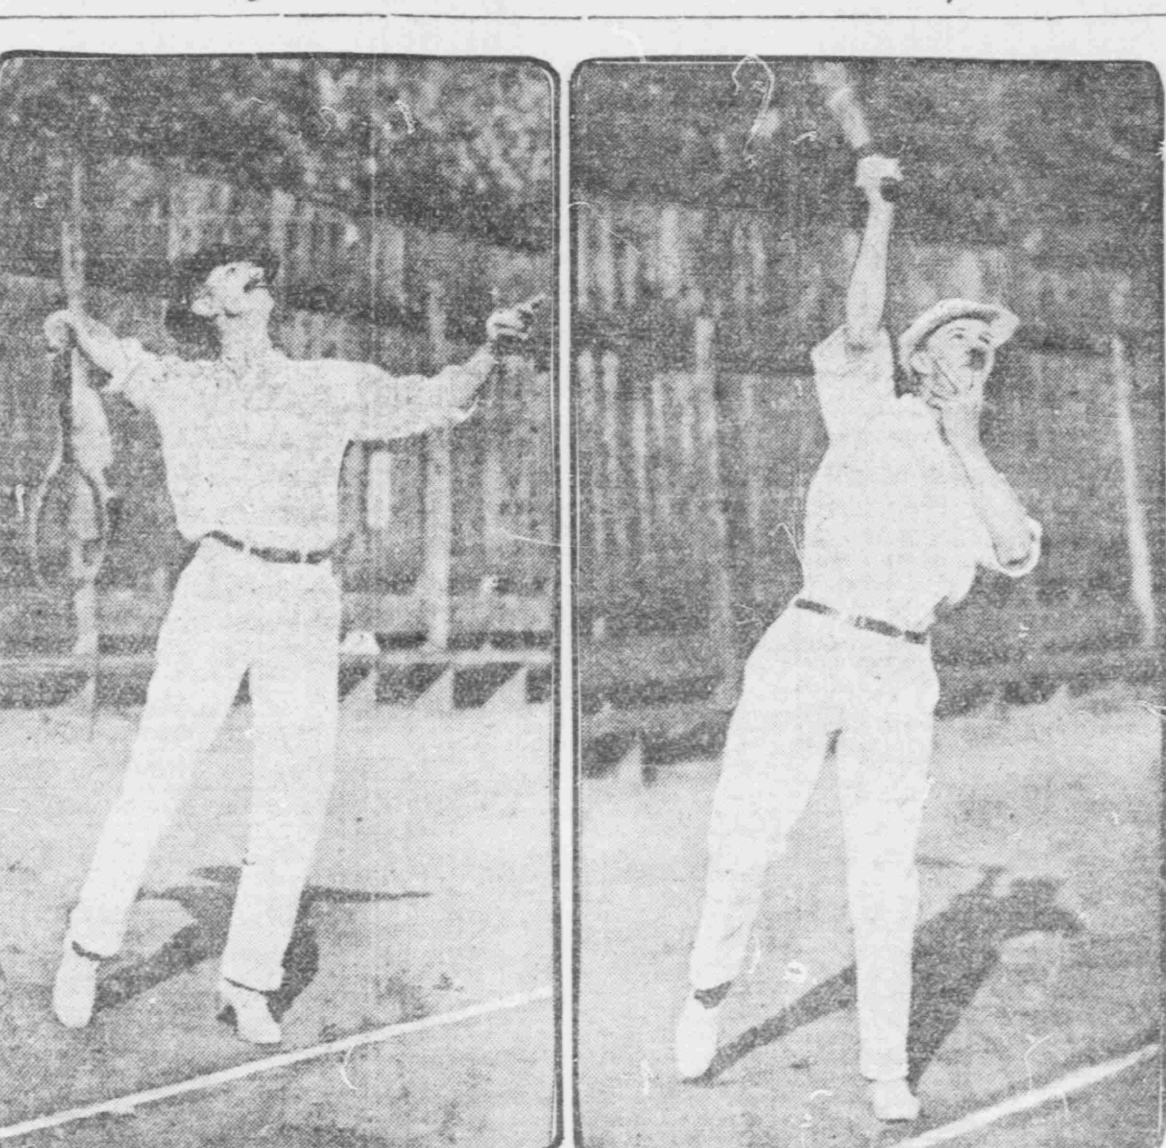

They are reported to form the best battery in that body.

YALE AND HARVARD TO PICK OFFICIALS

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 2.—Yale and Harvard have agreed upon a conference on Monday night to pick their football officials.

These are the only two universities in the East whose list is not chosen by the central rules committee. It is certain that there will be some changes in the list of last season.

CENTRAL WILL PLAY TEAM OF VETERANS

Former Scholastic Stars Will Meet Fast O Street Aggregation.

Tomorrow afternoon at Union League Park the Central High eleven will clash with the "Vets" in their first annual game.

The veterans will be composed of former Central gridiron stars, and the lineup will include such men as Seiby Burch, Melvin King, and Edwin McKee, considered by many among the best of the high school football warriors. "Kink" Taylor, head coach of the Central team, will be seen at center for the "Vets," and will be one of the mainstays of the old-timers.

"Cy" Macdonald, who has been the star of the Winchester Southern champion nine for the past season and who was captain of the Central eleven of '05, will probably play at right guard. Principal Wilson, of Central High, will probably act as an official.

The probable line-up of the teams follows:

	Positions.	Vets.
Central	Quarterback	King
Rollins	Center	McKee
Spanney	Right Half	Witten
Vinton	Fullback	Porter
Laurel	Linebacker	Snow
Morrell	Center	Taylor
Henry	Right Half	Macdonald
Gripp	Left Half	H. B. B.
Wilson	Fullback	McKee

The deciding games of the American League pennant aspirants will begin today.

St. Louis plays Detroit today and tomorrow at Detroit. In the twenty games already played each team has won ten. Chicago opens a two-day stand at Cleveland today.

The Giants broke even with the Phillies in a double-header, while Chicago defeated the Cincinnati team on the latter's grounds. The results of these games caused the New Yorks to fall back two points in percentage, and enabled the Chicago club to draw two points closer to New York.

Pittsburg has four games to play—three with St. Louis in St. Louis, and one with Chicago at Chicago. Chicago has two games at Cincinnati and one at home with Pittsburg.

GEORGETOWN PREPS WILL HAVE ELEVEN

Faculty Opposition Overcome and Former Andover Player Will Captain Team.

The Georgetown Preparatory School will put a football team in the field again this year to battle with the other high and preparatory schools for the District championship.

Permission for the undergraduates at Georgetown to continue football was given by the faculty yesterday. At the close of the 1907 season the Prep were in a bad way financially, and it was feared there would be no eleven this year, as the faculty forbade the manager-elect to arrange a schedule until the indebtedness was cleared off.

Manager Stanton has succeeded in accomplishing this task, and the call for candidates has been given. Games are being arranged.

The prospects for a team which measures up to last year's crack eleven, are poor at present. Not one man of the 1907 team is on hand to represent the school again this year. This is the only time in the history of the Prep department that veterans have not been out for the team, consequently the work of developing an eleven from the new men will be most difficult.

Manning Gaynor, formerly quarterback at Andover, has been elected captain. He is a former member of the Prep and is well known to the faculty and the school.

Any football team in the District desiring a game for Saturday, October 3, can arrange for contact by calling on H. Crump, 1320 F Street northwest or phone M 366. No teams barred that does not average over 144 pounds.

CORNELL SQUADS FLOUNDER IN MUD

ITHACA, N. Y., Oct. 2.—Floundering around in a field covered with mud and water the Cornell squads were beaten by the varsity by a single touchdown in a twenty-five-minute scrimmage.

The regulars forced the ball to the goal line for the second time, but lost it on Caldwell's fumble. Halfbacks Shearer and Mowse sped across the slippery field, hardly seeming to touch the surface. Mowse brought the ball close to the goal line on a dashing run around left, and on the next play Ebeling, who "subbed" for Walder, jumped through the line for a touchdown.

O'Rourke played in the scrimmage and Crosby was sent in at Harris' end. The Kid McCoy-Jim Stewart match is scheduled for October 16 at the National Club, New York.

FIGHT FOR TENNIS HONORS TOMORROW

Winner of Doyle-Doyle Match Will Challenge President Champion.

ROUND FOR TITLE IN THE AFTERNOON

Lincoln Easily Succumbs in Semi-Finals, While Graves Puts Up Stiff Fight.

Tomorrow morning on the courts of the Bachelors' Lawn Tennis Club, H. E. and L. L. Doyle will meet in the finals of the open championship tournament for the championship of the District of Columbia.

The winner of this match will play Connie Doyle, a third brother of the famous tennis family, for the District title.

Harold Doyle is the favorite for winner of the tournament, and should give his brother a warm fight for the title. Both play the same kind of game, being strong on net play, and the match tomorrow afternoon will probably be one of the most spectacular ever played on the bachelors' courts.

In the semi-finals yesterday Gould Lincoln went down to defeat before Harold Doyle with comparative ease. Lincoln had been putting up a classy game until the semi-finals were reached, when he fell down badly in form.

The L. L. Doyle-Graves match was the last of the day. Graves was very hard fought every inch of the way. Graves captured the second set, but Doyle, by stretching every nerve, took the third, qualifying to meet his brother for the District title.

The Summaries:

Upper half—H. E. Doyle beat L. L. Doyle, 6-1, 6-0; Graves beat Scheffer, 4-2, 6-0; L. L. Doyle beat Graves, 6-3, 4-6, 6-2.

Doubles—Stabler and Cob-y beat W. F. Doyle and Heath, 6-6, 6-4, 6-4; Carlisle and Lincoln beat Lenz and Willis, 6-4, 6-1; Doyle and Doyle beat Carlisle and Lincoln, 6 love, 6-1.

HARD SCRIMMAGES FOR HARVARD MEN

Cutler Replaces Browne at Quarter, and Puffs Off Some Clever Plays.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Oct. 2.—Coach Haughton gave the Crimson warriors no rest after the game with Bowdoin, but decried a scrimmage in addition to hard drill at the dummy and punting practice. The varsity started well, and advanced the ball by end rushes and forward passes to the sub's 5-yard line, only to lose it there by being penalized for being off side.

On the next play the subs got the ball on an intercepted forward pass, and the varsity lost its only chance of scoring.

Cutler, who played quarter yesterday in place of G. Browne, made good forward passes to both ends, and did some clever dodging in running back punts.

Bob Browne played well at end, and Dunlap took Hoar's accustomed place at right guard.

CHANCES ARE SLIM FOR THOSE GIANTS

"On Dope They May Win, In Fact They Won't."

STILL HAVE HOPE OF DISPUTED GAME

Quaker Hitters Land Unmercifully on Gotham Pitchers—Brenahan Still Lame.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 2.—With a good prospect that the race in the National League may run into the fifth decimal place and be decided at the board meeting of the league directors, the Giants prepared today to get after the Phillies, and lose no more of their lead.

The lead is a lead whether it is three inches or a mile, and as long as the Giants stick in front, with always a chance of re-winning in Pulliam's office that game they won at the Polo Grounds from Chicago, it is obvious that they may win the pennant. McGraw explained this very clearly last night.

The Giants have the great chance to hold what they have, but it isn't as good as it might be, as you would realize had you seen the swatting of the cradle of liberty get after their twirlers yesterday.

McGraw says New York is going to win, and we have to take his word for it.

As a matter of fact they most decidedly are not.

Brenahan is so lame that it hardly seems possible to use him. He needs his ginger and long lead behind the bat today, or even tomorrow or next day. He was out in uniform, but just able to hobble around, with an ankle bandaged and braced like a bad feed in an engine.

RINGSIDE GOSSIP.

The Washington Athletic Club's next attraction is a bout between Muldoon's pickaninny, a Boston boy, and Black Bill, of Baltimore. Charles B. Jones, of Washington, is manager for the Bostonian, and is trying to arrange a date for the latter part of next month.

Young Lee and Kid Gordon, of this city, are out with sweeping challenges to meet anyone in the lightweight class. Address Charles B. Jones, Chaconas Buffet, 488 Pennsylvania avenue.

Jimmy Coffroth, the San Francisco promoter of boxing, has offered the winner of the Leach-Cross-Will Fitzgerald fight a match with Battling Nelson on Thanksgiving day.

Sammy Smith defeated Sammy Myers at the Roman Athletic Club, New York, on Monday night.

Dick Hyland, disappointed with his experience in the East, has returned to California.
